AT SLICK, OKLAHOMA:

At the Post Office, it was ascertained that C. W. WRIGHT was an old negro who lived in a shack about two miles southeast of Slick, ~~near the Slick, but~~ of several hours failed to contact WRIGHT. Through miscellaneous inquiries made in the negro section of Slick, it was learned that WRIGHT is unemployed and is considered queer in his actions. It was ascertained that he spends most of his time walking around carrying a .22 calibre rifle.

Inasmuch as it was ascertained that the negro school which WRIGHT's daughters attend was having a picnic, Agent located the picnic about 12 miles south and west of Slick, at which time an interview was had with RUTH and PEARLINE WRIGHT, daughters of Victim. Both informed that their father had exhibited instant letter to them, and that he was not much worried about it. They stated that their father had had no trouble with any of their boy friends, and had never received any previous threats from anyone around Slick. Both girls denied knowledge of any boys clubs or other organizations which might have sent this letter. They indicated that neither they nor their father had anyone under suspicion as the author of this letter. They further indicated that no further letters have been received to date. These girls mentioned that they thought their father was at home, but if not he often goes out of town for long walks and does not return until nightfall.

The following is the description of victim, as obtained from his daughters:

Age	69
Height	5' 11 to 6'
Weight	160
Hair	Black - graying

The end of the envelope was torn off before it reached the laboratory. On the upper left-hand corner it contains the printed return address "AFTER 5 DAYS RETURN TO" followed by two heavy black lines. The name and address are written in script with an indelible pencil.

Specimen Q2 is a sheet of ruled, white, notebook paper measuring 8.01" in width, 10.57" to 10.58" in length, .0034 to .0035" in thickness, has a weight of 3.510 grams and an opacity value of 0.81. Specimens Q1 through Q3 were searched through the Bureau's file of anonymous letters, but nothing of particular significance or of such a nature as to suggest investigation was found.

Photographic copies of specimens Q1 through Q3 are being transmitted herewith.

The original evidence is being retained in the files of the laboratory.
